ABOUT MISSION MUSLIM WORLD UNIVERSITY

The Most Comprehensive Curriculum Available on Christian Missions to Muslims and Islamic Studies

The Mission Muslim World University video curriculum began to be developed in 2003 by i2 Ministries. The vision was to create video courses from the best professors in the world and put the courses into 80 languages to give the global church the necessary training to finish the great commission among Muslims. MMWU is now the most comprehensive video curriculum available on Christian missions to Muslims and Islamic studies.

The curriculum consists of over 20 professionally produced video courses from some of the best scholars, practitioners, cross-cultural church planters, and missiologists on a variety of subjects providing the best training globally for Christians to learn to share the gospel with Muslims.

TRAINING THE GLOBAL CHURCH

Islam has grown from 230 million to 1.9 billion Muslims in the last 100 years and studies show that by 2050 Islam will most likely bypass global Christianity as the largest global religion. Muslims are by far the largest unreached peoples on earth who have not heard the gospel of Jesus Christ. Almost 40 percent of all the unreached people of the world are Muslims. 86 percent of Muslims globally do not personally know a Christian, and every 24 hours 37,000 Muslims die without the gospel of Jesus Christ.

However, the harvest is plentiful! Missiologists have confirmed that in the last 20 years there have been at least 94 unique large movements of Muslims coming to Christ! In other words more Muslims have come to Christ in the last two decades than in all history combined! But the laborers are few—there is only 1 missionary for every 420,000 Muslims!

The answer to the challenge of global Islam is a disciplined and trained church that loves Jesus Christ. We need a strategic, Holy Spirit-led plan to train and equip all churches to labor to finish the great commission among Muslims.

IDENTIFY

We have identified and video recorded some of the best global teachers on Christian missions to Muslims and Islamic studies.

LANGUAGE ACCESSIBLE

We are in the process of overdubbing the courses into 80 languages.

NATIONAL PARTNERS

We have formed training partnerships with some of the largest denominations and church networks in various countries in Asia, Africa, and South America.

OUR STRATEGIC PLAN

MEDIA PRODUCTION

We professionally produced over 20 studio-recorded video courses in a variety of lengths.

MASS DISTRIBUTION

We are launching these courses globally in multiple ways.

- Live training conferences
- Church-based training initiatives
- Various online training platforms
- Social media engagement
- Phone apps
- Satellite broadcast

MOBILIZATION

We use the training to launch large-scale national evangelistic and discipleship initiatives among Muslims.

DISTRIBUTION CHANNELS

1

TRAINING CONFERENCES AND INITIATIVES

Our main strategy is to run leadership training conferences with the largest denominations and church networks, country by country, to launch church-based training and evangelism initiatives, providing them with the MMWU courses to use freely in their networks.

ONLINE SCHOOL

Mission Muslim World University Online (mmwu.org) offers the MMWU courses plus graduate-level assignments making this the most robust training curriculum available on Christian Missions to Muslims and Islamic Studies. We are in the process of creating pathways for our online students to get an accredited MA degree.

3

FREE ON-DEMAND VIDEO TRAINING

All the MMWU courses are available totally free on The World Apologetics Discipleship Institute on-demand training platform. Thewadi.org platform is a user-friendly "Netflix" like environment and contains training in over ten languages.

4

PHONE APPLICATIONS

All the MMWU courses are available to stream for free inside the WISE Global Phone Application. WISE is a ministry management system that helps church networks launch and track the progress of a prayer, training and evangelism initiative.

5

SOCIAL MEDIA PROJECTS

We have developed 200 short 1-2 minute videos from the MMWU courses to blast all over social media in multiple languages @thewadi.english | @thewadi.arabic

6

ONLINE STORE

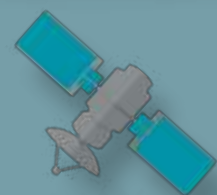

We have an online store (i2ministries.org) where people can purchase their own copy of the courses on DVD, USB, mp3, digital downloads, and supplemental course books with articles from leading scholars.

7

SATELLITE INTO CLOSED COUNTRIES

Satellite is a very effective way for Christians and Muslims to gain accessibility to the MMWU courses in closed countries. We have used satellite broadcasting before in India, and we are in conversations with multiple partners and plan on continuing this strategy.

LANGUAGE ACCESSIBILITY

THE GLOBAL CHURCH NEEDS ACCESS TO THE BEST TRAINING TO BE EQUIPPED TO EFFECTIVELY REACH THE MUSLIM WORLD WITH THE GOSPEL.

“We are going to put the MMMW video courses into 80 languages to help equip and mobilize the global church to finish the great commission among Muslims.”

– Dr. Joshua Lingel

COURSE OVERDUB PROCESS

Raise $20k to video overdub a 10-hour course into a new language

Produce a word-for-word, time-stamped, English transcript for each course session

Professional translators translate the transcript into the new language

Time adjusted in the new language transcript to match the length of the English version

Professional voice actor studio records new audio from the transcript

Post production voice overlay on video files adjusted to match the course professor

“An immigrant bricklayer in Florida stepped out in faith and funded two courses to be overdubbed into Spanish. Ten years later the largest church networks in the Latin world are using those courses to train laborers to reach the Muslim world. What language could you help fund?”

IN-DEPTH LEARNING EXPERIENCE

The MMWU courses are taught by globally recognized professors, studio recorded, and professionally produced bringing students an engaging, content-rich, learning experience. The courses are visually inspiring with on-screen graphics, text, maps, manuscripts and more. The content range is heavy enough to challenge the budding scholar and simple enough for the oral learner. They are peer reviewed by both Christian and former Muslim scholars who have given the highest reviews.

"My name is Muhammad. I am an ex-imam Muslim from Iraq. Now I am a missionary to Muslims. My friend from Egypt sent me the MMWU videos to see what I thought since I was a former imam. When I watched Dr. Joshua Lingel teach the oldest Islamic history, I was so happy! It is the truth! It is perfect! It explains it better than I was ever able to. Now I send people to train through these video courses!" - Muhammad (former imam from Iraq)

ENDORSEMENTS

DR. MICHAEL LICONA - AUTHOR AND NEW TESTAMENT SCHOLAR

"I know of no other training ministry that is even close to equal to that of MMWU. Dr. Joshua Lingel is a leader of leaders and brings a prophetic exhortation and encouragement to train each Christian in our churches young and old to reach Muslims.. I can personally affirm his integrity, personal scholarship, and his academic and spiritual mentorship of many."

JOSH MCDOWELL - FOUNDER, JOSH MCDOWELL MINISTRY

"Having personally reviewed the teaching materials, I can see that these resources created are essential to equip and train leaders on and off the field... There is no ministry that provides better training in churches for ministry to Muslims than the i2 Ministries MMWU courses."

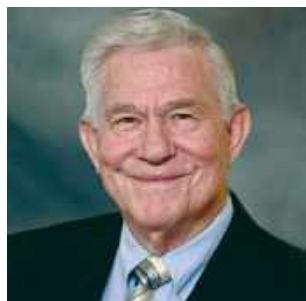

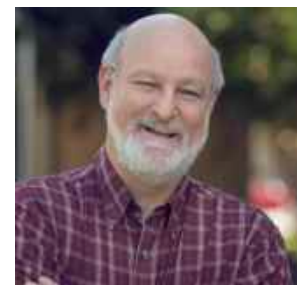

DR. WILLIAM LANE CRAIG - PRESIDENT, REASONABLE FAITH

"As the Iron Curtain fell in the twentieth century, so the Islamic curtain shielding the Muslim world from the proclamation of the Gospel is destined to fall in the twenty-first. The courses contained in i2 Ministries' curriculum will help to equip churches and individuals to reach Muslims effectively with the life-changing message of Christ."

DR. DARRELL BOCK - RESEARCH PROFESSOR OF NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES, DALLAS THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

"The i2 Ministries MMWU video training offers a solid way for the church to be prepared to evangelize Muslims and interact with their objections to the faith. This strategic ministry of i2 Ministries meets a vital need in the church —make use of what it offers."

DR. ROBERT E. COLEMAN - AUTHOR AND SENIOR PROFESSOR OF DISCIPLESHIP AND EVANGELISM, GORDON-CONWELL

"i2 Ministries' MMWU is remarkably qualified to train people to communicate effectively with the Muslim world in a way that very few other groups are taking initiative."

Mission Muslim World University Online takes the video courses and adds academic and missional rigor to develop the next generation of leaders who will labor to finish the great commission among Muslims. MMWU students work at their own pace through a robust graduate-level curriculum to receive a certificate in Christian Missions to Muslims and Islamic Studies.

Students complete the following:

- ✓ Study through the Orientation and Foundations modules video courses
- ✓ Take electives from any of the other modules
- ✓ Read the earliest Islamic sources and other essential text
- ✓ Make practical handouts and evangelism tracts
- ✓ Write papers on a variety of topics
- ✓ Complete evangelism reports
- ✓ Start prayer meetings for the Muslim world
- ✓ Train other Christians through the orientation course

MMWU.ORG is taking scholarship applications from those who work in missions among Muslims full-time. MMWU is also in the process of developing pathways with universities for certificate students to receive credit towards various accredited MA programs.

2. How Muslims Come to Christ
3. How Islam Is Changing the World
4. Introduction to Islam
5. Everything You Need to Know About Radical Islam
6. Jesus in Islam and Christianity
7. Insider Movements: A Critical Assessment
8. Finishing the Great Commission Among Muslims

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This 6-hour orientation course mobilizes Christians into evangelism with Muslims through a deeper understanding of biblical discipleship that calls us to finish the Great Commission. This course gives an understanding of the Islamic worldview and demonstrates how Muslims often raise polemical questions about the Bible, the nature of Jesus, and the origins and development of Christianity. This course discusses our missional response to those critical questions while assessing the origins and early development of Islam.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will assist students in becoming equipped with responses to critical questions (philosophical and theological issues) raised by Muslims that attempt to undermine the foundations of the Christian faith and prove it to be self-contradictory, flawed, or false (This is the "defense"). Secondly, this class will provide the students with information on Islam and an introduction to polemics that undermine one's confidence in trusting the Islamic historical origins, philosophy, or doctrines as true (This is the "offense"). The research has been peer-reviewed and covers modern critical scholarship on the Biography of Muhammad, the six genres of Islamic historical tradition, as well as source and textual criticism of the Qur'an.

RADICAL EVANGELISM TO MUSLIMS

Dr. Jay Smith

SESSIONS IN THIS COURSE

1. Introduction to Muslim Evangelism
2. Understanding Islam's Beliefs and Practices
3. Islam and Christianity Compared – "Hermeneutical Key"
4. Muhammad – A Christian Critique
5. The Bible – A Christian Apologetic
6. Confident Christianity: In Seven Areas vs. Islam
7. Khilafah Verses the Kingdom of God
8. Which is the Religion of Peace, Islam or Christianity?
The Question Post 9/11 & 7/7
9. Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's)
10. The Attraction of Islam
11. Missiological Methodologies Post 9/11

COURSE DESCRIPTION

"Radical" means to go back to the root. In Islam this means to go back to the Seventh Century violence of Muhammad, Allah, and the early Muslim conquests. In Christianity, however, it means to be devoted followers of Jesus, Paul, and the first century church's great commission. Radical Evangelism to Muslims means to love Muslims enough to be a faithful witness to the gospel to them in our modern day. Christian apologist Jay Smith communicates the reality of resurgent Islam and its impact on the Church's witness to the Muslim world. This course attempts to equip Christians with tools to answer the most pressing questions of our day.

PROFESSOR

Dr. Jay Smith has been working with Muslims for over 33 years in Brethren In Christ World Missions. He is an international teacher on Christian/Muslim Apologetics and Polemics and world famous for his fiery evangelism at Speakers' Corner in Hyde Park, London. He has participated in over 90 formal public debates with Muslim polemicists. Jay has two masters' degrees in divinity (Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary) and Islamics (Fuller Seminary), and has a PhD in apologetics and polemics from the Melbourne School of Theology, Australia, under the supervision of Dr. Peter Riddell.

5. The Doctrine of the Trinity Part 4
6. The Doctrine of the Trinity Part 5
7. The Doctrine of Man Part 1
8. The Doctrine of Man Part 2
9. Islamic View of Jesus
10. Christian Response to the Islamic View of Jesus
11. Islam's Challenge of the Scriptures

COURSE DESCRIPTION

"Christian and Islamic Theological Issues" presents a concise 11-hour explanation of these two very different world-views. Dr. Tavassoli compares the concepts of God, man, Christ, and the Scriptures in each worldview, and explains how these differences can be confronted when speaking with our Muslim neighbors. Presented from the unique perspective of a former Muslim, this class is sure to reveal an inside look into the theological differences between the two faiths.

This course is a survey of the major areas in which Christian and Islamic theology, doctrine, and dogma collide. The content of this course will also provide an important outline for the basic content necessary for discipling new CMBs (Christians from a Muslim Background).

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is based on the classic book that has sold more than three million copies and been translated into 60 languages. This video series is the only known recording of Dr. Robert Coleman's principles of The Master Plan of Evangelism. Billy Graham said: "Few books have had as great an impact on the cause of world evangelization in our generation as Robert Coleman's The Master Plan of Evangelism." For more than forty years this classic, biblical look at evangelism has challenged and instructed over three million readers. Now repackaged on video for our contemporary challenges, The Master Plan of Evangelism is as fresh and relevant as ever. Join the movement and discover how you can minister to the people who God brings into your life.

PROFESSOR

Dr. Coleman has taught at Gordon-Conwell South Hamilton since 2001, after directing the School of World Mission and Evangelism at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School for 18 years. He is a popular preacher, speaker, and teacher, averaging about 35 speaking engagements per year around the world.

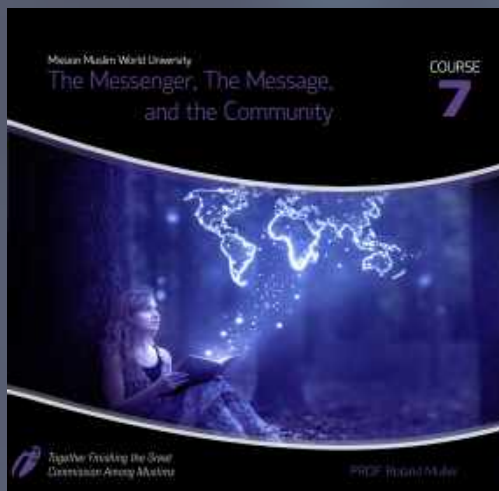

Widely known for his ministry as a disciple-maker and evangelist, Dr. Coleman currently serves on the Mission America Facilitation Committee and several international mission boards and is the president of Christian Outreach. From 1989-2001, he led the Institute of Evangelism in the Billy Graham Center at Wheaton College and served as Dean of the Billy Graham International Schools of Evangelism. He is also a founding member of the Lausanne Committee for World Evangelism and a past president of the Academy for Evangelism in Theological Education.

Dr. Coleman's scholarly interests include the theology of evangelism, revival, and the lifestyle of the Great Commission. Dr. Coleman is a prolific author, having written hundreds of articles and 21 books, though he is best known for The Master Plan of Evangelism. Translations of one or more of his books are published in 109 languages, with English editions alone exceeding 7 million copies.

THE MESSENGER, THE MESSAGE, AND THE COMMUNITY

Dr. Roland Muller

Available in English

SESSIONS IN THIS COURSE

1. The Messenger: Five Styles of Evangelism
2. The Messenger: Sharing with Muslims
3. The Message: Worldviews of Fear and Guilt
4. The Message: Shame Based Worldviews
5. The Message: Islam and Shame Based Worldview
6. The Message: Three-Fold Message of Salvation
7. The Community: Biblical Basis of Christian Community
8. The Community: Helping Muslims Change Communities
9. The Community: Wrap Up

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this series based on his book of the same title, Roland Muller looks at three challenges every evangelical church planter faces. First, they must be accepted by their target audience as viable messengers. Second, their message must be understandable to the worldview of their listeners. Third, the community they are forming must be a valid form of community for their audience. Roland Muller does a masterful job of bringing these three challenges together in one course addressing the Muslim mission field. Roland Muller speaks as a practitioner to practitioners, illustrating his points with examples drawn from a wide variety of backgrounds. This course is essential for all cross-cultural missions among Muslims.

PROFESSOR

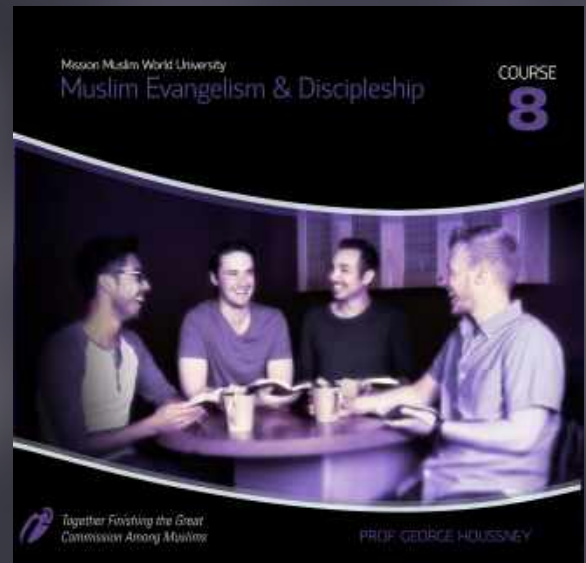

Roland Muller is a cross-cultural church planter with WEC International. Over the last thirty years his ministry has taken him into most Middle Eastern countries and has allowed him to minister to a wide variety of people— from the palaces of wealthy oil sheiks to humble Bedouin tents, from bustling cities to rural villages. He is the author of a dozen books including Tools for Muslim Evangelism, Honor and Shame: Unlocking the Door, and The Messenger, The Message, and the Community. He currently teaches cross-cultural ministry skills in Canada and has a worldwide speaking and mentoring ministry.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this presentation, Prof. Georges Housney walks us through the journey of sharing our faith with Muslims through leading them into a discipleship journey with Jesus Christ. By using his many personal stories and experiences, this course provides a very practical lesson in the questions and struggles faced by both Muslims and those engaging them.

PROFESSOR

Georges Housney was raised in the predominantly Muslim city of Tripoli, Lebanon. He came to faith in Jesus Christ as a teenager. Soon God grew a deep love for Muslims in his heart, and he began to sense God's call for full-time service among them. Well-known for his work supervising the translation and publication of the Bible into clear modern Arabic, Georges and his family moved from the Middle East to the United States in 1982 to minister to international students. Georges is passionate about reaching internationals here and abroad with the great news of salvation. He writes and lectures internationally about ministry to Muslims, and he strives to awaken a new generation who will proclaim the gospel boldly.

FREEDOM FROM THE SPIRITUAL AGREEMENTS OF ISLAM

Dr. Mark Durie

SESSIONS IN THIS COURSE

1. The Kingdom of God and Spiritual Warfare
2. The Shahada and the Role of Muhammad
3. The Dhimma Covenant
4. The Dhimma Covenant and Its Violations
5. The Denial of Dhimmitude
6. Muhammad's Response to Rejection
7. Jesus' Response to Rejection
8. Freedom from Islamic Covenants
9. Renouncing the Dhimma Pact
10. Renouncing the Shahada

Available in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, Dr. Mark Durie looks at the spiritual and historical roots of Islam beginning with the rejections which Muhammad faced and his responses to them compared with the life of Christ. As a result of these rejections we see the spiritual strongholds of Islam come into light. Prof. Durie then provides a comprehensive look at breaking the strongholds of the Shahada and Dhimmitude. The course concludes with powerful prayers of repentance to walk Muslim converts through to renounce and break free from the spiritual oppression of Islam.

PROFESSOR

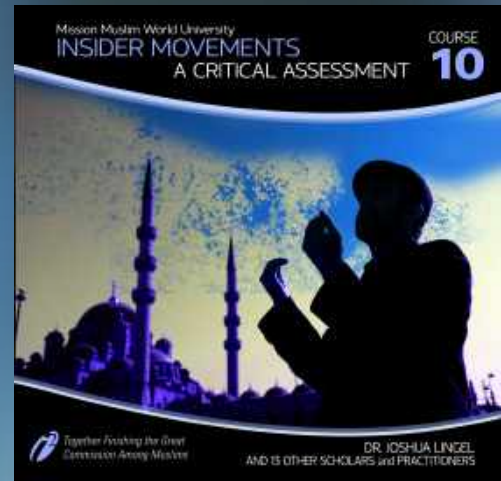

Dr. Mark Durie is a theologian, human rights activist, Anglican pastor, a Shillman-Ginsburg Writing Fellow at the Middle East Forum, and Adjunct Research Fellow of the Centre for the Study of Islam and Other Faiths at Melbourne School of Theology. He has published many articles and books on the language and culture of the Acehnese, Christian-Muslim relations, and religious freedom. A graduate of the Australian National University and the Australian College of Theology, he has held visiting appointments at the University of Leiden, MIT, UCLA, and Stanford, and was elected a Fellow of the Australian Academy of the Humanities in 1992.

14. Dr. Roger Dixon - Muslim Replacement Theology
15. Dr. Jeff Morton - "IM" Also Means Inappropriate Missiology

Available in English

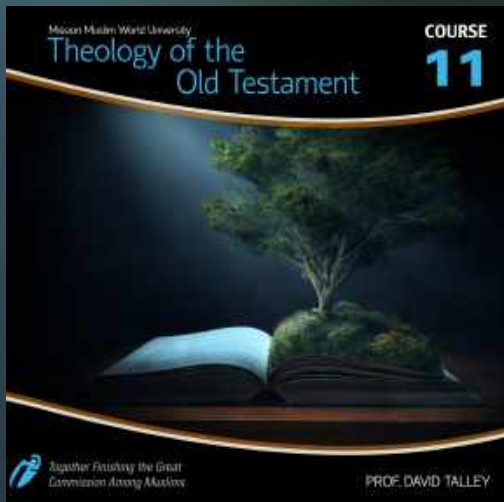

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This Insider Movements course was filmed at a conference held at Liberty University on October 1-3, 2010, to discuss a missionary strategy referred to as Insider Movements and its radical form of contextualization. Missionaries, missiologists, professors, and theologians gathered together for three days to present papers that assess insider movements from a biblical and missiological perspective. Discussions range from scholars to field practitioners to the local church.

You'll hear from 14 presenters and their critiques of certain assumptions and tactics of Insider Movement missiology. At the conclusion of the course, we are confident that you will agree with Dr. Jeff Morton that that IM stands for "Inappropriate Missiology."

THEOLOGY OF THE OLD TESTAMENT

Dr. David Talley

Available in English

SESSIONS IN THIS COURSE

1. Understanding the Old Testament: The “Story Line”
2. Genesis: a Story of Degeneration and Restoration
3. Exodus: God Reveals Himself So He Can Be Known

8. Samuel: The Destructiveness of Sin and Preservation through Grace
9. The Books of Kings: Idolatry - Living as if God is NOT
10. Ezra/Nehemiah: A Glance toward Grace to Come

COURSE DESCRIPTION

When the Old Testament is read quickly, God can be seen as wrathful, vengeful, and against humanity. But when the story is studied more carefully, looking at man’s harmful actions to himself and our rebellion against God and our own best interest, His ways make more sense. The continuous story of the Old Testament is contained in eleven books. When these books are studied in succession, the grace of God pours forth as the prevailing theme. Dr. Talley argues that rather than finding a wrathful God who arbitrarily deals out judgement, what we find is the core message of a God who loves, pursues, and gives grace to sinful humanity. This story is the epic battle which leads ultimately to the climax of God’s love, the revealing of the Messiah, who is God Himself—Jesus. This is a helpful course for Christians from a Muslim background to understand the Biblical narrative of grace.

PROFESSOR

Dr. David Talley is the Chair of the Biblical Studies Department at Biola University and a teaching pastor at Grace Evangelical Free Church in La Mirada, CA. He received his doctorate from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. Dr. Talley is a training professor with i2 Ministries, and instructs missionaries going to the Muslim world at training structures in Asia, Africa and South America. With his core class focusing on the Theology of the Old Testament, he helps students to read the Bible and discover God in the revealed Word like they have never experienced before.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The mind plays an important role in Christianity. Unfortunately, many of us leave our minds behind when it comes to our faith. In this course Loving God with All Your Mind J.P. Moreland presents a logical case for the role of the mind in spiritual transformation. He challenges us to develop a Christian mind and to use our intellect to further God's kingdom through evangelism, apologetics, worship, and vocation.

In this series Dr. Moreland addresses such issues as: Anti-Intellectualism vs. the Thinking Christian; Jesus the greatest intellectual in history; Atheism, Secular Humanism, Post-Modernism and their impact on Western and global culture.

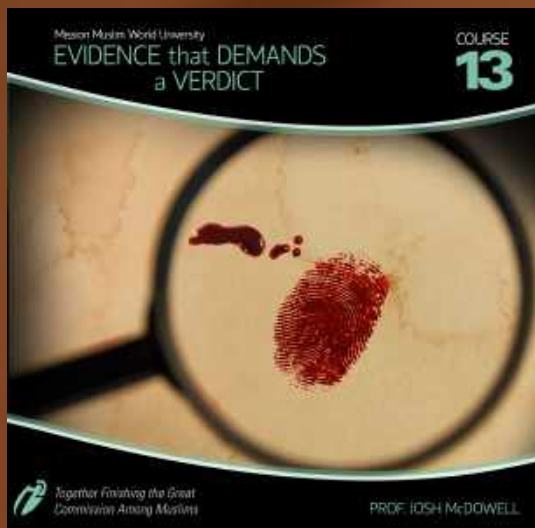

PROFESSOR

J. P. Moreland is one of the leading evangelical thinkers of our day. He is distinguished professor of philosophy at Talbot School of Theology and director of Eidos Christian Center. With degrees in philosophy, theology, and chemistry, Dr. Moreland has taught theology and philosophy at several schools throughout the US. He has authored or coauthored many books, including Philosophical Foundations for a Christian Worldview; Christianity and the Nature of Science; Scaling the Secular City; Does God Exist?; The Lost Virtue of Happiness; and Body and Soul.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Josh McDowell has distributed more than 60 million copies of books on apologetics in the nations. This 12-hour video course is based on the classical book Evidence that Demands a Verdict. The course addresses the trustworthiness of the Bible and offers historical evidence and supporting attestations for Jesus' claim to divinity. Josh McDowell addresses "radical criticism" of the Bible and is devoted to quelling the voice of numerous skeptics, including "a defense for the existence of miracles" and "answers to a divergent worldview." This is a powerfully influential course on apologetics from one of the most prolific apologists of this generation.

PROFESSOR

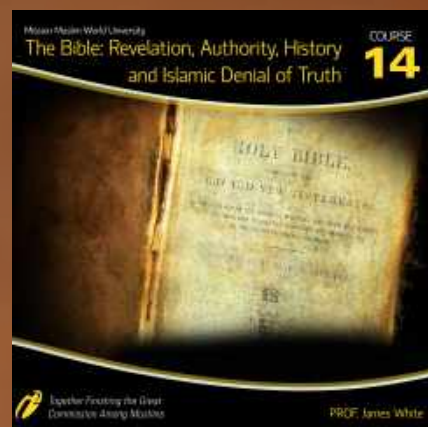

In 1961 Josh joined the staff of Campus Crusade for Christ International. Not long after, he started the Josh McDowell Ministry to reach young people worldwide with the truth and love of Jesus. Well known as an articulate speaker, Josh has addressed more than 10 million young people, giving over 24,000 talks in 118 countries. In addition to many other awards, Josh has been nominated 36 times for the Gold Medallion Award and has received that award on four occasions.

Available in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Bible has been assaulted like never before in the past century both by secular and Islamic scholars. In this course Dr. James White shows why and how we can be absolutely certain that the Bible is the word of God. James White articulately refutes the common accusations set against biblical inerrancy, historical textual transmission, canonicity, the Trinity, and the so-called “other gospels”.

Dr. White also critiques the Islamic challenge to the Bible and its theology to see if the claims in and about the Qur’an can handle the same scrutiny the Bible can take. He shows unequivocally that Islam crumbles under the same historical and theological scrutiny.

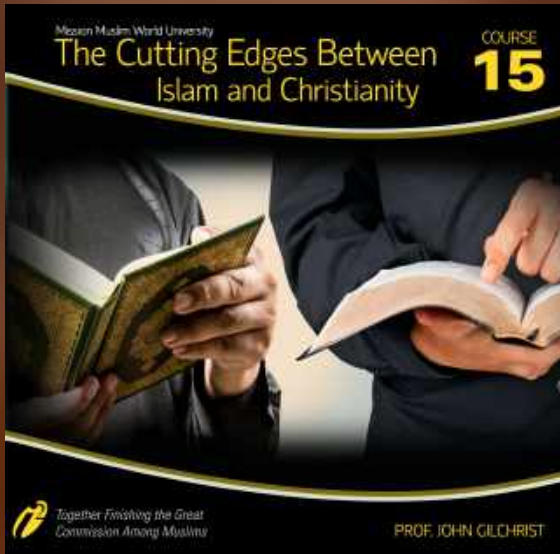

PROFESSOR

Dr. James White is the director of Alpha and Omega Ministries, a Christian apologetics organization based in Phoenix, Arizona, and an elder of Apologia Church in Arizona. He is the author of more than twenty books, a professor, and an accomplished debater. He has been married for more than thirty-seven years and has two children and four grandchildren.

THE CUTTING EDGES OF MUSLIM CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

Dr. John Gilchrist

Available in English

SESSIONS IN THIS COURSE

9. The "Pagan Origins" of Christianity
10. Is Muhammad Foretold in the Bible?
11. The Influence of Gnosticism on Islam
12. The Faith of Abraham
13. The Uniqueness and Titles of Jesus

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course John Gilchrist tackles the doctrines, perspectives, and arguments that separate Muslims and Christians. He explains the "cutting edges" between Islamic and Christian concepts of textual history of the Quran and the Bible, the sinlessness of the prophets, the uniqueness of Jesus, the Trinity, the crucifixion and what constitutes true revelation and a true prophet. Dr. Gilchrist provides solid biblical and well-reasoned answers for Christians who are discussing or debating with Muslims.

PROFESSOR

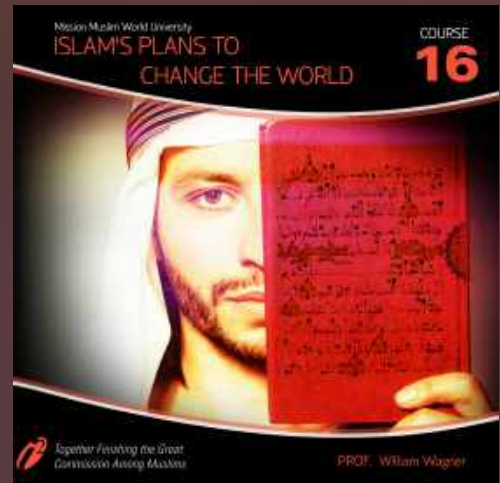

Dr. John Gilchrist speaks from over 30 years of personal outreach to Muslims in South Africa and is a well-known international writer, teacher, and debater. He has always believed that the most effective way of reaching Muslims with the Gospel is to base our witness on the Word of God.

5. Truth and Fear in Islam
6. Power Encounters with Islam
7. Intimidation and Persecution in Islam
8. Islam's Global Paradigm Shift
9. Eschatology and Evangelism in Islam

Available in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The unfolding conflict between Islam and the West is not just a clash of cultures—it is a head-to-head confrontation between a religion intent on world dominance and a culture confused and unsettled by rising hatred and violence. In this revealing course Wagner, an experienced Christian missionary to the Muslim world, examines the rapid worldwide growth of Islam and credits it to a well-financed missions strategy. This “loose strategy” is advanced through three tactical methods: jihad (holy war), Da’wah (missions), and mosques (presence). His conclusions about Islam’s growth, which is neither spontaneous nor accidental, should spur Christians on to become much more active in living out their faith and proclaiming the truth found in Jesus Christ.

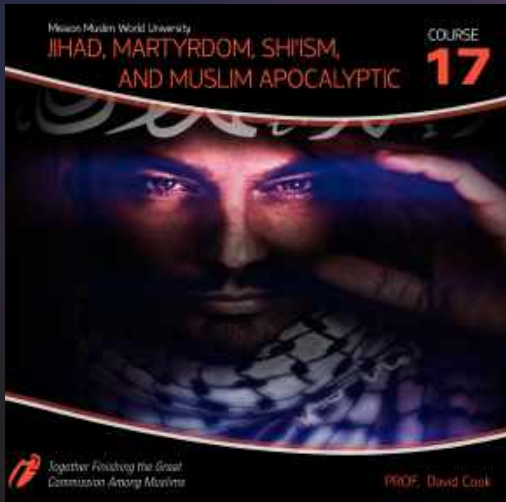

PROFESSOR

Dr. William Wagner (ThD, University of South Africa; DMiss, Fuller Theological Seminary is professor of missions at the Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary and vice president of the Southern Baptist Convention. For more than thirty years he served as a missionary with SBC's International Mission Board. During that time, he was chairman of the Muslim Awareness Committee of the European Baptist Federation. In addition to teaching, he travels and speaks extensively in the Middle East and Europe, training missionaries for ministry to Muslims.

JIHAD, MARTYRDOM, SHIISM, AND MUSLIM APOCALYPTIC

Dr. David Cook

7. Shi'ite Martyrdom
8. Contemporary Martyrdom and Suicide Attacks
9. Islamic Apocalyptic
10. Shi'ite Apocalyptic
11. Shi'ite Apocalyptic Distinctions
12. Contemporary Muslim Apocalyptic

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course Dr. David Cook presents a scholarly look at the history and development of jihad theory and practice from the earliest Islamic sources into modern day jihad. Prof. Cook provides an honest and direct look at how culture, politics, and religion came together and changed over time. Prof. Cook also looks at radical thought development and Shiite distinctives.

PROFESSOR

David Cook is associate professor of religion at Rice University specializing in Islam. He did his undergraduate degrees at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem and received his PhD from the University of Chicago in 2002. His areas of specialization include early Islamic history and development, Muslim apocalyptic literature and movements (classical and contemporary), radical Islam, historical astronomy and Judeo-Arabic literature. Cook is considered a premier scholar and has published numerous books including Martyrdom in Islam: Themes in Islamic History published by Cambridge Press. Cook is continuing to work on classical Muslim apocalyptic literature, translating the sources, such as Nu'aym b. Hammad al-Marwazi's Kitab al-fitan, as well as having recently become co-editor for Edinburgh University Press' series on Islamic Apocalyptic and Eschatology (with Christian Lange of the University of Utrecht). He is also sponsoring research on Boko Haram's ideology, working with PhD student Abdul Basit Kassem and Rice University Post-Graduate Fellow Michael Nwankpa on the group's texts and videos in order to translate them into English.

7. Loving Our Enemies
8. Understanding the Times
9. The Battle of Gog and Magog
10. Identifying the Beast

Available in English

COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this presentation New York Times bestselling author Joel Richardson presents the possible role which Islam and Middle Eastern countries may play in end times. Richardson's presentation shows the similarities between the Biblical Antichrist and Islam's expectations about a returning Jesus. His explanation of the relationship between Christian end-time prophecy and Islamic expectations of world domination has shocked readers and revolutionized eschatological expectations. He also builds a case for an Islamic Antichrist systematically from Biblical exegesis and proves the long awaited system of the Antichrist is even now before us and knocking at our door. Through a highly-scholarly, theologically-grounded, yet simple presentation, Richardson thoroughly corrects the objections of critics, establishing the Biblical case for an Islamic Antichrist.

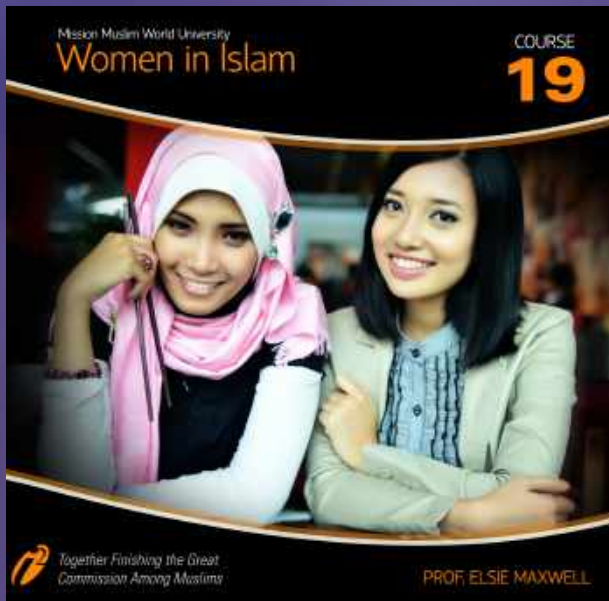

PROFESSOR

Joel Richardson is a New York Times bestselling author, film maker, and internationally recognized teacher. Joel lives in the United States with his wife and five children. Joel's heart is thoroughly missional, with a special love for all the peoples of the Middle East. Joel travels globally teaching on the Gospel, living with Biblical hope, the return of Jesus, and preparing the Church to face the great challenges of our time.

WOMEN IN ISLAM

Dr. Elsie Maxwell

PROFESSOR Dr. Anthony Weedor was born in the West African state of Liberia, a small country founded by freed slaves from America in July of 1847. He became a Christian in the early 80s through the ministries of Serving In Mission (SIM). He worked in Bomi Hills as an evangelist and church planter. He graduated from the African Bible College with a BA in Biblical Studies, with an emphasis in Radio Broadcasting. In August of 1988 he was appointed Director of Muslim Ministries for West Africa with SIM. In 1989 when the Liberian civil war broke out, he and his family walked for one year to La Cote d'Ivoire to escape. They lived in Cote d'Ivoire for three and a half years in a refugee camp.

His family moved to the states in 1993 so he could study at the Denver Theological Seminary. He earned a master of divinity degree with emphasis in philosophy. After graduation, his family moved to Ethiopia as missionaries with SIM. After spending more than four years ministering among pastors and teaching at the Evangelical Theological College.

He then returned to Denver Seminary as an Adjunct Professor in the Philosophy department in 2006. He
